

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62.37

Norton Gardens
Hyattsville, Md.

LIBRARY
RECEIVED
★ SEP 26 1952 ★
U. S. Department of Agriculture

No. 53

HEMEROCALLIS PUBLICATION

by J. B. S. Norton

MARCH, 1952.

Changes from 1951 Price List

The following numbers are not offered before August, 1952, when a new list is to be issued: 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 11, 12, 21, 24, 36, 40, 41, 50, 55, 59, 62, 63, 66, 67, 76, 79, 84, 85, 86, 88, 91, 92, 93, 95, 97, 99, 100, 101, 104.

A few of the following, recently originated in our garden, are available:

Artemis, light yellow, the wide petals, wider near the rounded apex, has been highly rated by many. $4.00

Decoration, brilliant red with wide light stripe in petals. $3.00.

Forerunner, very early, long tapering segments, unique branching inflorescence, $2.00.

Winemaker, very late, full, purplish flowers. $5.00

Arabian Sheik, petals wide, near light scarlet, mid-season. $4.00.

Come out Rhode Island Ave. from Washington, D. C.; turn sharply left at first traffic light in Hyattsville, and see them in bloom. 660 kinds of daylilies and many other kinds of flowers.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

DATE: 10/15/54

TO: SAC, NEW YORK

RE: [Illegible text]

[Illegible text]

[Illegible text]

[Illegible text]

[Illegible text]

[Illegible text]

[Illegible text]

[Illegible text]